Notes:

1. The Business International Requirement may be met by any combination of language classes and/or classes from the list above, i.e., by taking 1) two courses in the same language, or 2) two courses in different languages, or 3) one course in a language and one course from the list above, or 4) two courses from the list above.
2. Courses that qualify as a Business International Requirement may be eligible to satisfy both the Business International Requirement and an STS/CCA requirement. See the General Education section of the undergraduate announcements to determine which classes meet the STS and/or CCA requirement.
3. Courses that qualify as a Business International Requirement and an Arts and Humanities General Education requirement may count for one but not both requirements.
4. Courses related to modern culture, geography, history, literature, religion, arts or political environment of a nation or region other than the United States may be considered on a substitution basis for the Business International Requirement.

*May not be taken by Management and Industrial Management majors to satisfy requirement. Accounting, Finance, and Marketing majors may take one to satisfy requirement.
